Mr. Colby:

The Director buzzed you at 12:00. I explained your whereabouts, said you would be back at about 3:00, and asked if I could be of any assistance. He asked that I give you the following message concerning your earlier conversation with him about the problem with [redacted] the man Mr. Helms is to see in connection with this is unavailable until a week from Thursday; therefore this may go a little slower than you and he had anticipated, but he doubts that there is all that much urgency.
